

Why Don't They Just Stop?

An Educational Forum

Sponsored by the Palomar Unitarian Universalist Fellowship Addictions Ministry

Tuesday Evenings, September 8, 15, 22
6:30 - 8:15 p.m.

If you've wondered about:

- The physiological and psychological aspects of addiction
- The suffering and its impact on our families, communities and society
- Latest treatment modalities
- How to get or give support that really helps

Please join us for an in-depth exploration of addiction, its effects on families, various approaches to recovery and a Unitarian Universalist perspective of hope. Introducing each session, we will present excerpts from the ground-breaking HBO Documentary - "Why Don't They Just Stop" which presents the latest medical advances in understanding and treating addiction, as well as the heart-breaking stories and societal impacts of addiction.

Each session will be facilitated by Rev. Dr. Beth Johnson, CCDC, and other certified addiction professionals; and will include time for questions and discussion. Community resources and referrals will also be available.

Palomar Unitarian Universalist Fellowship Addictions Ministry seeks to serve as a resource for help, hope and wholeness for our Congregation, our community and for individuals dealing with addictions: their own or those affecting their friends, family or co-workers. It is comprised of Unitarian Universalist ministers and laypeople committed to empowered addictions recovery and support for all those affected.
